AFLV Announces One Year of Free Chapter Membership for All New Fraternity and Sorority Chapters/Colonies

FORT COLLINS, CO. – The Association of Fraternal Leadership & Values (AFLV) is thrilled to announce a new program to support the growth and development of new fraternity and sorority chapters/colonies around the country. The Association believes that a strong foundation is key to successful long term development and functioning for individual fraternity and sorority chapters, and seeks to support those chapters through this new initiative.

Free membership (valued at $50) is available to any new chapter/colony established after July 1, 2011. Membership expires on June 30, 2012. Inter/national organizations are encouraged to contact Tricia Fechter to begin the process of establishing membership for new chapters/colonies. Campus advisors with smaller organizations may also contact Fechter for more details or to establish membership for a chapter/colony. Mark Koepsell, Executive Director/CEO, AFLV states, "We are putting our money where our mouth is and supporting new chapters around the country in their critical first year. As a founding member of my chapter, the experience is important to me, and we look forward to watching chapters grow through leadership and values based education that can really make a difference in our fraternal communities."

The Association of Fraternal Leadership & Values is a 501 (c)3 organization that exists to stimulate the growth and development of fraternity/sorority council and chapter leaders by promoting leadership, educational, and values based experiences and resources for student leaders, their advisors, and the larger fraternal market. The Association of Fraternal Leadership & Values (AFLV) is the showcase for cutting-edge Fraternity/Sorority programming, technology, thinking, and concepts.
